As we introduce The 1994 Royal Blue theme, we bring to your attention the pace at which we move through life. Friendships, decisions (good and bad), and a variety of memories all rush by at a masterful click. It seems as though only yesterday a new school year was dawning and there was much to anticipate. Now, the year is complete, so we prepare for what is to follow. So, as we find ourselves keeping pace with the ever-changing , don't forget the knowledge gained while "Racing Through The Years."

"This will teach you guys not to fool around in chemistry class," Thinks Mr. Bowman

"What do you think your doing?" asks Melissa Fite

"Oh no! I broke my nail!" exclaims Carrie Eagon

"What's up with you taking our picture?" asks Andrea Byrd.

Stephanie: "A lot of things I would have liked to do aren't allowed for exchange students - being on sports teams, graduating, and drivers license Transportation- There should be more public transportation." Age 17

Oswaldo Paez-Pumar

Oswaldo: "I really like the mountains and the snow here. Almost all the students here work after school, and they never do anything for fun. Too many students worry about money." Age 18

Vladimir: "My host family is really nice and helps me with my problems if I have any. I enjoy my stay here, I especially enjoy Mrs. Phillips class. I'd like to take football back with me. Age 16

Jessi Coleman stares in ahh

"What's going on back there?" asks Jim Bisgard, and Jack Carico.

"This is a man's job," thinks Lance Kegley, as he rolls up his sleeves.

"Just a few more minutes of sleep is all I need to get through Journal Staff," thinks Brian Bump.

"Geez this is hard work, I can't believe I have to have this done by the end of the period," thinks Diana McMillian.

on how the camera works.

Annual Staff asked the students what they thought on different subjects here's the results:

The favorite song was Again, by Janet Jackson, with Whoomp There It Is, coming in a close second.

The favorite record was the Body Guard Soundtrack by Whitney Houston, a tie for Second between Funky Divas, by En Vogue, and In Pieces, by Garth Brooks.

Janet Jackson's new album "janet" introduces a bold new singer. Her new album clocks in at more than 75 minutes and covers pop, rap, rock, jazz, ballads, opera, and goofy dialogue. One critic said: "This album contains some of the finest work by this modern hitmaker."

Pearl Jam, the purveyor of grunge, which is an unadorned grinding rock sound fashioned by Seattle-based bands, won awards for "Jeremy", and "Ten." Singer Eddie Vedder has a stage presence not seen since Jim Morrison. His low, powerful vocals and the band's snarling, two-guitar attack is the essential Seattle sound.

Dr. Dre is the chief architect of what is known as West Coast gangsta rap. He has produced million-selling albums, most recently "The Chronic." The people of Haiti anxiously awaited the return of their elected president, the Rev. Jean-Bertrand Aristide. After 2 years of exile that followed an army coup that overthrew him, President Aristide was set to return home. Aristide was elected in a landslide in the country's first democratic vote. His return followed 2 years of negotiating a settlement of Haiti's political crisis.

Police that he had abused a 13 yr. old boy and maybe there were more. His ranch and condo were searched but no evidence was found. Micheal continues to deny these allegations. Close friends support him and believe that he is innocent. If he is guilty it would bring down the biggest pop star in America.

A.S.B. makes changes for the better

More appealing dances, open forums, music on the announcements, cultural awareness week, celebration of arts, including a wall strictly for students' artistic expression, a back to school Luau, and doors on the bathroom stalls are all changes and new ideas that have taken place at Wa-Hi this year.

The first annual Luau took place on August 27, in the academic court yard, and was a huge success. Everyone received a hawaii lei as they entered, pizza was served and a limbo contest was held. The queen of the limbo was Syphay Manyroth, and her king Rick Fraire. Over $500 was raised for the senior class.

Another fun and exciting thing A.S.B participated in was a leadership conference in October. Many students taught classes. A lot of inspirational speakers were heard and many friends were made. The conference was enjoyed by all.

To become a commissioner one must fill out an application at the end of the school year.

Wa-Hi's leading debate club is in it's second year. It was to provide knowledge and experience to students who have an interest in forensic debate. The ultimate goal of the club is to produce debate teams that would represent Wa-Hi in big nine forensic competitions. Most often the students are working on the computer with a program called Year Tech. This is a desktop publishing program that allows each student an opportunity to experience the production end of publishing. The annual staff advisor is Mr. Peck. He said, "The annual staff this year is making a special effort to produce the most error free, aesthetically pleasing yearbook they can. For a class that is required to produce a quality product before they even know how to produce that product, I think they do a wonderful job."

Preparing for his next opponent, Chris Jenkins fixes his elbow brace.

Chris Johnson readies himself for a takedown.

David Corn looks for encouragement as he holds his opponent down.

WRESTLING

Even though he won, Coy Miller shows no enthusiasm from the victory.

Jay Potter uses all his body and strength pin his opponent.

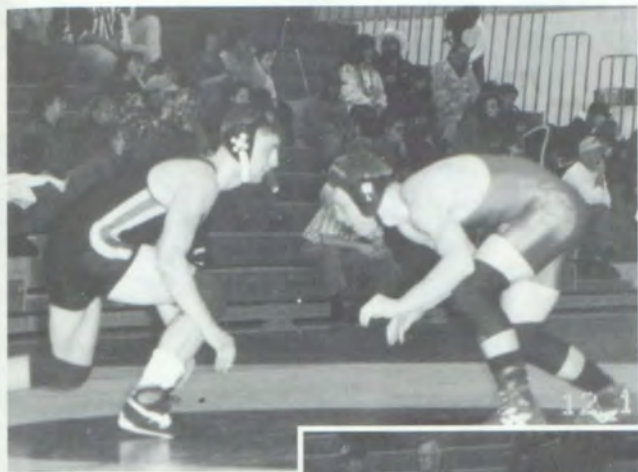

Crouched, Shane Tupper anticipates his next attack.

Bryan Adams looks distraught as Al Sievertson coaches him.

In his Tai kwan do position, Ryan Thompson defends his title.

Mr. Olds looks in while Coy Miller rassles with a Kennewick Lion.

"The 1993-94 Blue Devils were a young team. With only two seniors in the varsity line-up, they worked hard, fought hard, and struggled to win. Finishing with an 0-8 Big Nine record and a 2-17 season record their consolation is the pride that comes from honest effort and the re-alization that most will be back to compete another day." Coach Al Sievertson said to end the season.

Rick Fraire puts another one of many opponents to his mercy.

Pat Mackler puts his opponent in a head and arm.

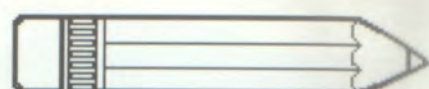

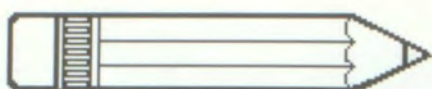

The wrestling team takes a breather.

David Corn rejoices in the winner circle.

Brett Maib steadies himself to pounce on his opponent.
